I wonder if ever a song was sung but the singer's heart sang sweeter!
I wonder if ever a rhyme was rung but the thought surpassed the meter!
I wonder if ever a sculptor wrought till the cold stoned echoed his ardent thought!
Or, if ever a painter with light and shade the dream of his in most heart portrayed!

James C. Harvey, Incompleteness

Foreword

The quotation above was chosen because we believe it epitomizes all that can be said of our school's endeavors. For each attempt at perfection made by our fellow classmates (no matter how near or far from its goal) we know that in their heart was a model of that very greatness that they strived to obtain.

In this production of the 1982-83 yearbook, the annual staff attempted on paper all the happy-sad-exciting moments which will linger in our hearts forever.

Even though it is true that these pictured-filled pages can never quite succeed in capturing the true feeling of the memories we all retain of the past school year, perhaps, in some small way, they will upon perusal, cause the examiner to relive his own interpretation of what really happened as we all struggled for Antelope Excellence.

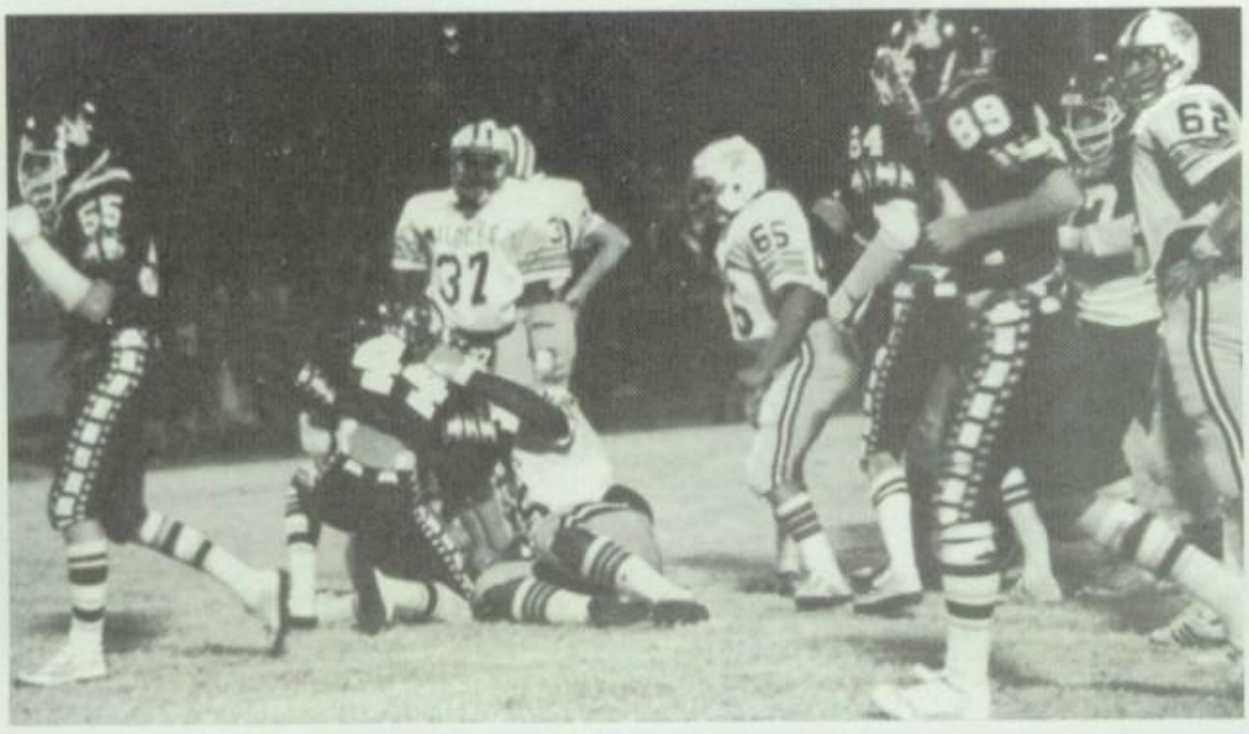
Student Life



Football Season Brings Flurry of Activities

Players leave huddle as play is completed.

Rene Vecchio invites student body support for the night's game.

Junior high and elementary students participate in half-time activities at the last home game of the season.

An opposing team member jumps into tackle tailback, Billy Cooper.

Coach Irlbeck checks Billy Cooper's injury while Frank Mendoza assists.

Cheerleader Terri Gist promotes spirit at pep rally.

Junior varsity closes in on opponents.

Coach Scooter Cassler listens attentively as the press box gives advice.

Angie Garcia, Melissa Thompson, and Rita Garza perform a twirling routine at pep rally.

Loyal Lope Fans Support Spirit Rallies

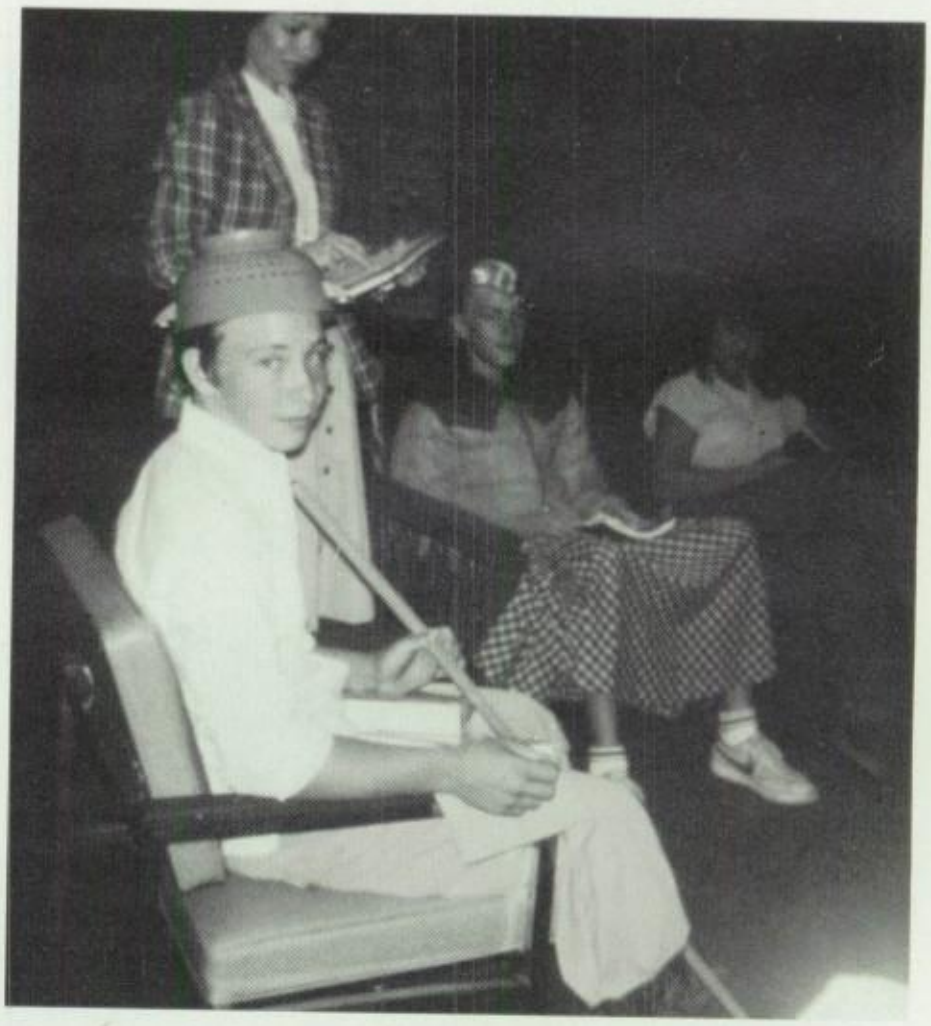
D'Ana Howard and Kristy Thompson pose in their Celebrity Day costumes.

Donna Burgess, Christy Ortiz, Tammy Lloyd, Kellye DuBose, Mendy Tennell, Susan Stone, and Roger Gragg line up for Abernathy's own "Circus of the Stars."

La Rita Howard is a professional reporter on Hat Day.

"We're a bunch of 'cool' fans," say Kathie Ellis, Stacey Kelley, and Jackie Riddell, on "Shade 'Em Day."

Participation Provides Fun for Group Members



The band shines at a football game as Hilda Lopez follows her music.

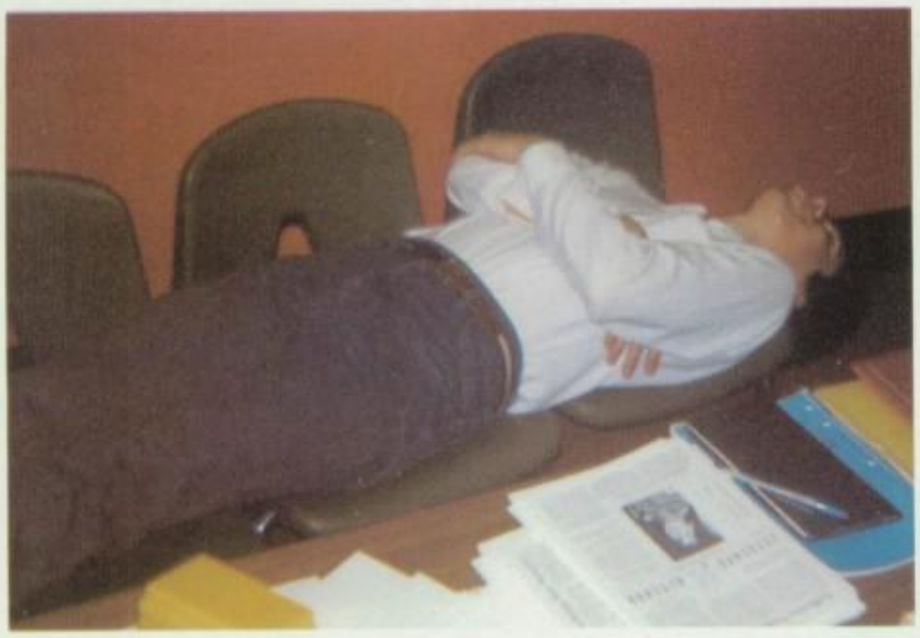
Missy Johnson repeats the FFA pledge at the greenhand initiation.

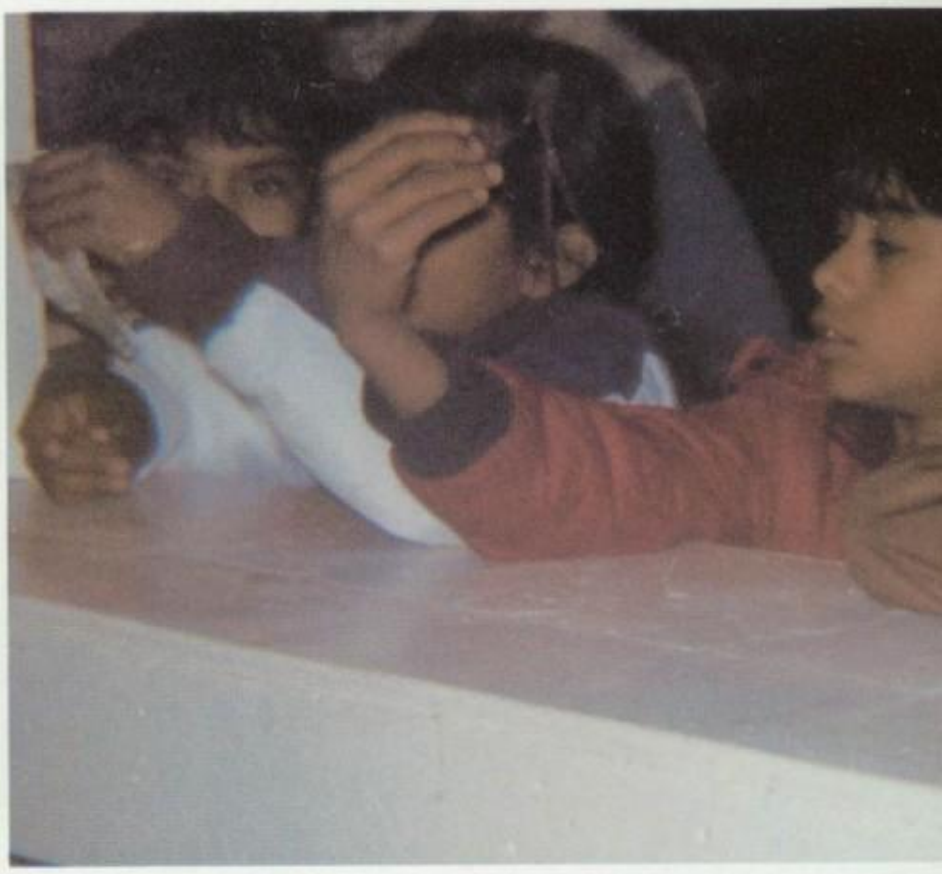
Bandsmen, Miguel Guillen and Patricia Garcia, wrap up and munch warm popcorn during a cold football game.

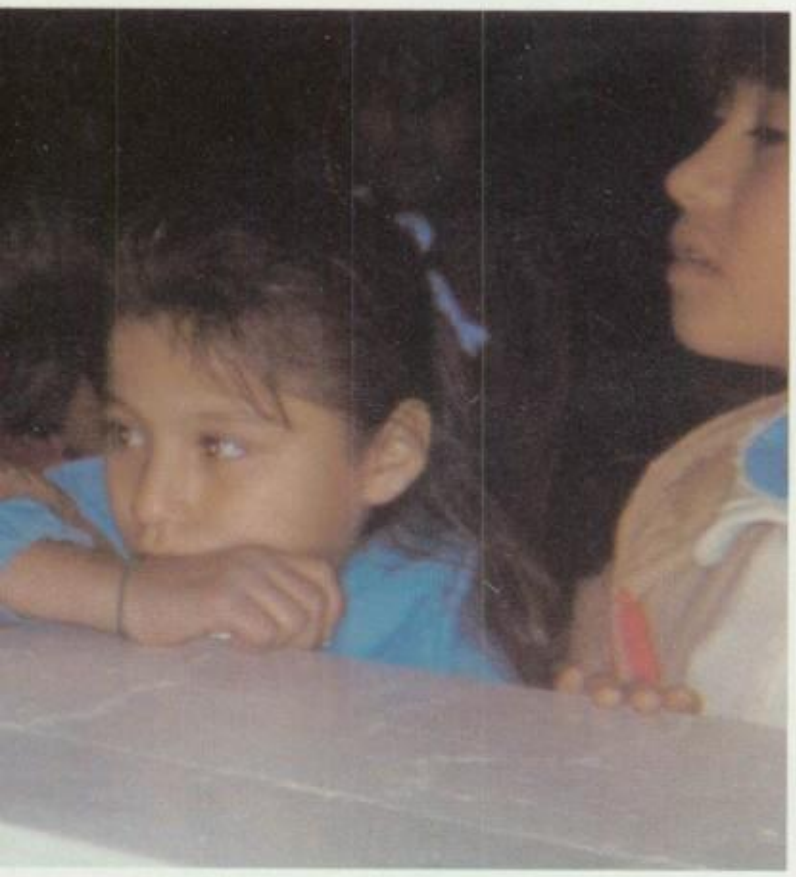
Jim Bob Carver and Lance Bigham, alias greenhand initiation victims no. 1 and no. 2, answer as Mrs. Aldridge calls roll.

It's a grand life according to the happy clarinets Bobby Morgan and Barbara Hemphill.

Color Us Spirited







Johnny Shafer tries meditation.

Patrick Lewis watches during an exciting play.

All the mysterious exhilaration of the Yuletide season is shown in the faces of Tammy Lloyd, Angie Attebury, and D'Ana Howard as they decorate the Academic Center's Christmas tree.

Elementary students make careful selections at the concession stand.

Tom Conway, Roger Gragg, and Alton Belyeu proudly display their English project; a cake iced as a map of Hercules' travels.

Lonnie Teal and his strange companion are entranced by the computer's screen.

Yolanda Ortiz directs a stony stare at the intruding photographer, but Bobby Morgan remains unruffled by circumstances.

Tuba players march under heavy loads in the Fourth of July parade.

Elementary teacher Patsy Tucker dresses to puzzle her students while Minnie Tennel goes "Smurfing U.S.A."

How do you expect me to say anything with my mouth full? Melissa Thompson enjoys her pizza.

Homecoming 1982

Homecoming court gathers during half-time of football game that night.

Kathy Ellis and Randal Stillwell work on junior class's hall decoration.

Roger Gragg and Christy Miller prepare golf carts to transport Homecoming Queen and Princesses.

Bill DuBose decorates vehicle for Homecoming festivities.

Friends Add New Dimension to Life

Melissa Hagstrom participates with other students in a sing-a-long activity at Washington, D.C. Her ability won her a trip there in a South Plains Electrical Contest.

The Washington Monument, rising majestically above the surrounding area, provided only one of many sites visited by Melissa Hagstrom on her trip to the United States Capitol.

Mary Cooper adds a finishing touch to a friends hair while on a band bus to Hale Center.

Students show support for Lopes during Togo Day.

Monny Williams, Chuck Thompson, and Ray Garza dress up for the 50's.

Cross Country Challenges Endurance Ability Of Competitors

Girls Compete At State

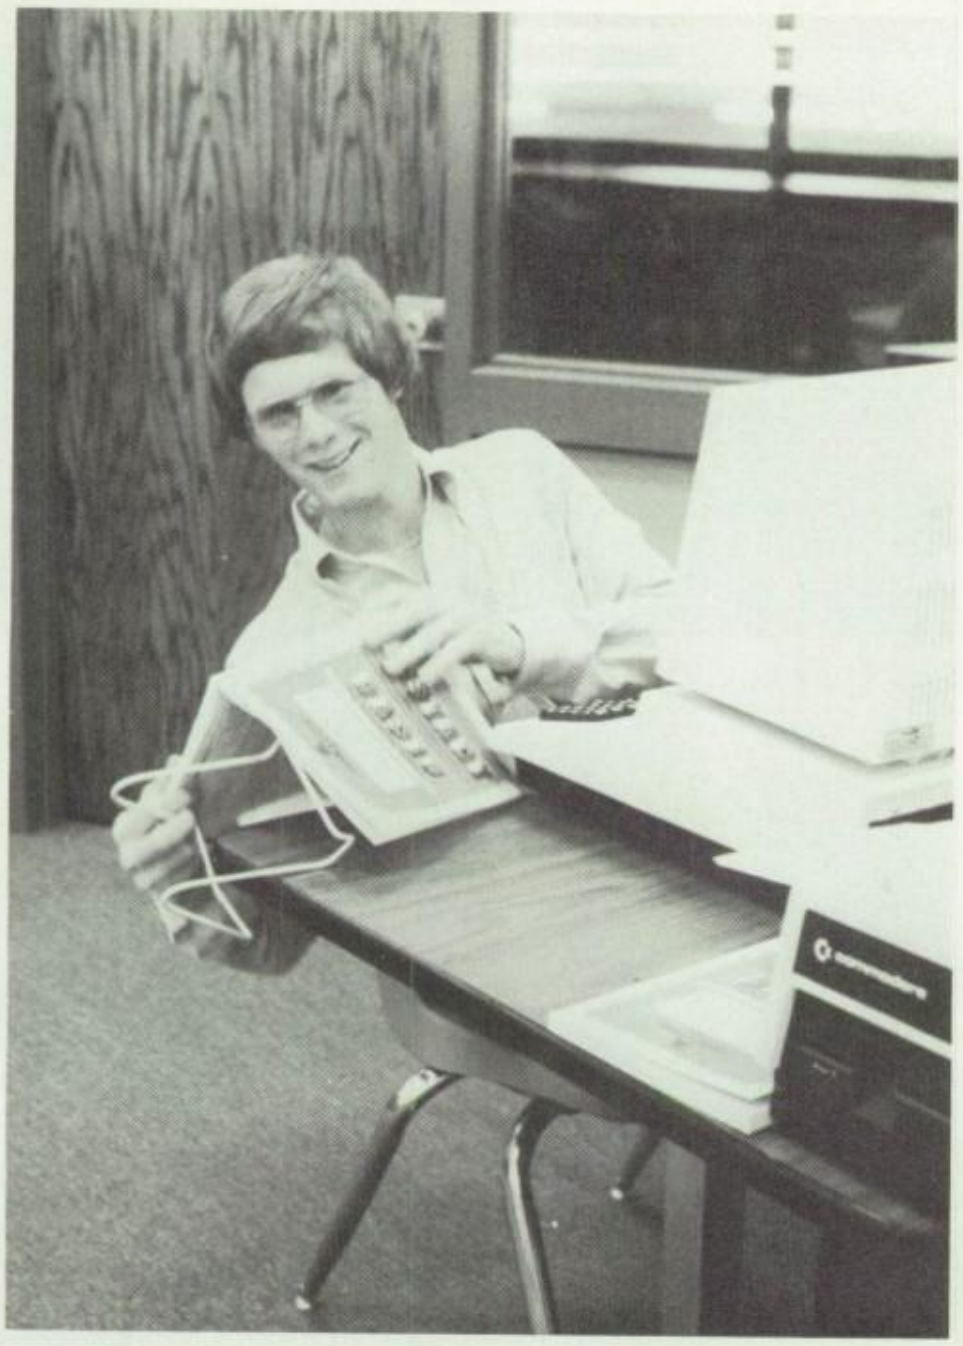
Jackie Riddell and Re Gina Powell enjoy refreshments after a cross country work-out.

Cletus Irlbeck, Tony Ortiz, and Ed Teal push endurance to the limit as they compete in cross country.

Lone runner, Dinah Neve runs with Mae Simmons Park in Lubbock serving as a picturesque background.

Ed Teal is caught in moment of concentration while sucking it in for the finish.

Typical Day Composed Of Many Activities



Something interesting captures Tom Conway's attention as he and Alton Belyeu examine a book.

Lonnie Howard executes a dazzling maneuver in computer class.

"Smile, you're on candid camera." Irma Mejorado reacts with surprise as she is photographed aboard the band bus.

School: A Place of Fun and Work

Ms. Cagle actually "takes the cake." Jac-Rab and the Tubes pose for publicity shots after their first appearance at the Air Guitar contest . Ross Bradley, Tracy Murray, and Dinah Neve let their real personalities take over during their American History skits. Not knowing that they are being watched, Jay and Mr. Kennedy secretly prepare their strategies for the State Calculator contest. "I want you to fight and fight hard! Make me proud of you!" exclaims Miss Carter to her Journalism class. D'Ana, what are you looking at? Mrs. Vieregge cheerfully begins a lecture on pantyhose sizes. Helen Kester and Sandy Garcia take a break from their hard work for a picture.

'All the World's a Stage'

Jan Rawlings learns the technique of stage makeup. "Help me!" shouts our heroine, Angie Attebury, as the monster, Mark Bell, glares down at her with eyes that kill. Mendy Tennell is eager to pose with Ruben Garcia after the makeup job she received during the Drama Club meeting. Bilinda Scott becomes a broken-down old maid during the junior play. Rachel Lopez, Amy Boyles, and Bilinda Scott age eighty years for a drama class production. Kellye DuBose and Cristy Ortiz portray an Italian mother and daughter for the senior play.

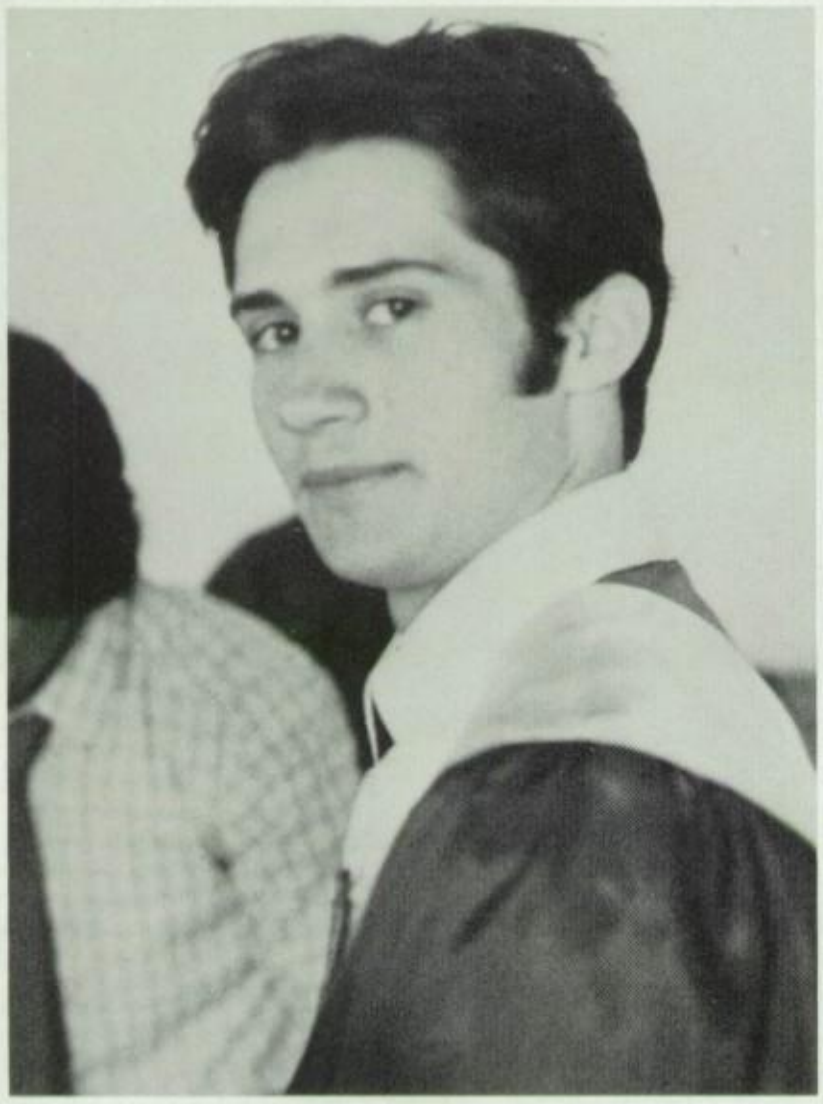
Baccalaureate and Graduation

Barry Tilley Addresses Fellow Graduates In His Baccalaureate Sermon



Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time;

Let us, then, be up and doing,
With a heart for any fate;
Still achieving, still pursuing,
learn to labor and to wait.

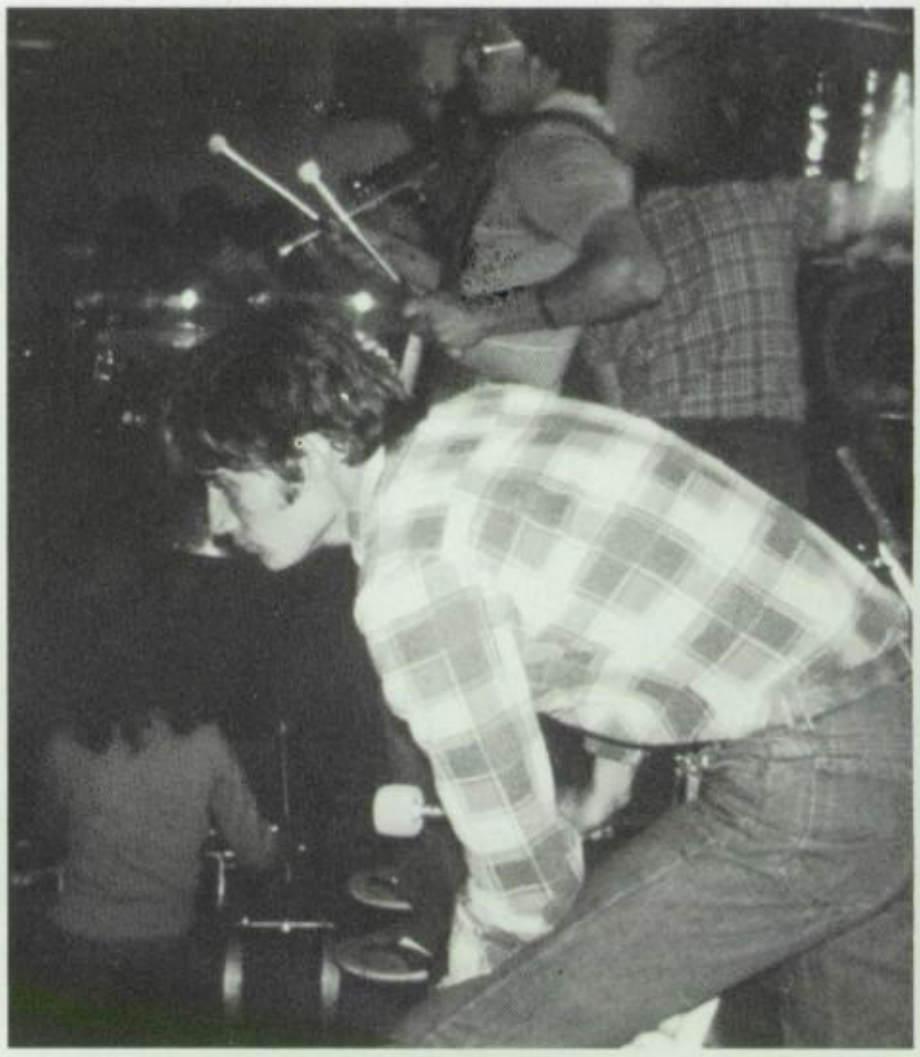
The Last Year Speeds By In A Whirl Of Activities



"Your days are numbered Kermit", exclaims Ryn Dunn, pointing his water gun, as Patricia Garcia and Pablo Aguilar witness the crime on Senior Kid Day.

Susan Conway and Kellye DuBose take time off cheerleader practice to clown around for the photographer.

Sandy Ortiz's smile radiates "Joy to the World."

Jimmy Salitros makes the gym reverberate to the sound of his bass drum at pep rallies.

Roger Gragg sacrifices his preppy style of dress for the good of the senior class play.

Angie Attebury struggles with the candles as she and Lonnie Howard ready the Gold Auditorium for NHS initiation.

Darren Knox readies the golf carts for the Homecoming Court's traditional drive around the track.

On Character Day, Donna Burgess amazingly becomes Stevie Nicks; Tammy Lloyd transforms into Carol Burnett; and Christy Ortiz revamps her image into that of Moon Unit Zappa.
